Miss Santa

As the snow falls, she looks out the window. The children are building a snowman, battling with the soft, cold cotton, their presents already awaiting them under the tree. She is Miss Santa, and she gathered all of these gifts herself. Starlight Celebration is truly beautiful.

SWEATER WEATHER duo

They are snuggled up by the fireplace with some hot choco, whispering sweet nothings to each other. That gaze in their eyes just tells they want to hear more about each other's day and to see what they would want for Starlight. There might be a blizzard outside, but next to each other it's warm and full of love.

LEEJA'S HOUSING CORNER

Hello and welcome fellow housing enthusiasts, to another edition of Leeja's Housing Corner! The days here are getting colder, winter is fast upon us and the Starlight Celebration is right around the corner! With that in mind, I decided to share with you all how I show my love for housing and the holidays. This month I'll be showing you around my house on Lamia!

Let's jump right in—standing at the gate to my house, we see an Oriental Wood Bridge positioned between Lattice Planters on both sides, leading to a Wooden Deck being repurposed as a front porch.

A Sun-topped Starlight Sentinel, Empty Giftboxes, and a friendly Snowman sit atop some Snow Drifts. Wooden Footbridges create a barrier between the Starlight decorations and the Oriental Grass and Death's Fingers growing behind them.

The Garden Gravel path curves to the right, leading to our respite against the chilly weather—a Hingan Hot Spring, surrounded by Autumnal Maple Trees and a Cedar Tree.

Entering my house, we are immediately hit with the dazzling lights of the Starlight Sentinel decorating my foyer. Starlight Ornaments adorn the walls around the tree, providing ample holiday cheer for everyone to enjoy.

My front door is also festively decorated with a Starlight Wreath. The bottom of an Evercold Starlight Snowman is floating above the doorway, creating a modern recessed light. Adjacent to the front door is an open window—a Verdant Partition and Doman Dogwood peeking through from the outside.

To the left of my entryway is a cozy reading nook with a red Simple Curtain hanging down the middle. Two Glade Benches provide ample seating next to the small library, with an Imitation Square Window lighting the nook during the day, while another Evercold Starlight Snowman is floated overhead so I can use the reading nook any time throughout the day. This is actually one of my favorite spots in my house!

Turning around, we head towards the kitchen. Passing a set of stairs and a low hanging ceiling, we enter the open kitchen which is filled with light thanks to the beautiful Imitation Square Windows on the back wall, as well as the Imitation Long Windows I overlapped above my bar seating area. A Starlight Dodo is currently warming on the stove and I've provided a tray of Starlight Donuts to snack on for dessert. Botanist Dried Herbs hang overhead—a necessity in my kitchen! (Pardon the mess—I was in the middle of washing the Messy Dishes left on the counter.)

Let's head upstairs to the living room. There's ample seating with two Leather Sofas in front of the television, along with two Macaron Cushions near the large library. I do enjoy a good book, as I'm sure I've mentioned before, so having multiple spots for reading is always important to me. The holiday spirit doesn't stay contained downstairs, as you can see. I've decorated this space with a few Starlight Saplings as well.

Heading back downstairs, we walk up the half-flight of stairs on the left of the house. Turning to the right, we enter my small bathroom. A modern take on the Carbuncle Bathtub sits in the back corner, the showerhead poking out of the wall overhead.

Imitation Long Windows light up the room during the day, while a Metal Work Lantern is placed on the Staggered Shelf. The colorful Chirurgeon's Essentials create a perfect shelf for shampoos and soaps, while an Elixir Bottle serves well as a bottle of hand soap on the vanity countertop!

Finally, we enter the final room in my house—my bedroom. A Double Feather Bed sits in the center of the room with the comforter from the Futon Mattress, in a dark red suitable for the holiday season, layered underneath. Behind the bed is a large, open window. Bamboo Flowerpots and Oldrose Wall Planters lay against a sunlit sky, while the Bluebird Mobile creates the illusion of birds flying outside the window.

Oldrose Wall Planters decorate the top of my dresser in the front corner, while Wall Planters line the back bottom wall. This room is filled with all of the things I love—bright lights, greenery, and art.

This brings us to the end of my house tour. If you ever find yourself in my neck of the woods, please feel free to stop by and take a look around! You can find me in The Goblet, Ward 14, Plot 38 on Lamia.

Friends, I hope you all enjoyed yet another housing adventure with me as your guide! As always, I am continuously on the hunt for houses, apartments, cafes, and more to visit, so if you or anyone you may know would like to be featured in an upcoming article, give me a shout! You can find me on Lamia or in our Discord. Until next time, happy decorating!
